RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF ABANDONMENT

Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Applicants received a Notification of Abandonment dated December 22, 1999 indicating that applicants had failed to properly respond to the Missing Requirements issued on November 5, 1998. The Notification of Abandonment refers to an attached Notification of a Defective Response, however, no Notification of a Defective Response was provided with the Notification of Abandonment.

Applicants did properly respond to the Missing Requirements issued on November 5, 1998, by filing a signed declaration and a check in the amount of the required fees. In support of applicants' position, enclosed herewith is:

1). a copy of applicants Response to Missing Parts comprising two pages of a cover transmittal letter; one page of a copy of the Notification of Missing Requirements; and two pages of the executed declaration;

2.) a copy of applicants stamped receipt postcard indicating applicants response with declaration and check were received by the Patent Office on December 10, 1998;

3.) a copy of applicants attorney's check register indicating check 2993 in the amount of $1148.00 was drafted on December 7, 1998 for MATS:006 (the present application) as payment of the required fee;

4.) a copy of applicants attorney's check statement indicating check 2993 was cashed on December 16, 1998; and

5.) a copy of applicants attorney's docket book evidencing filing.

In view of the above, it is respectfully submitted that the issuance of a Notice of Abandonment for the above-referenced application is in error and should be withdrawn.

Although it is believed that no fees should be required because the error appears to be on the part of the Patent Office, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge Deposit Account 18-2056 any fees required to enter this paper and maintain the pendency of this application.

Any questions regarding this paper should be addressed to the undersigned attorney of record at 703-904-4332.

Respectfully submitted,
